Section 1:

All members of this Association shall agree to observe and be bound by the following Code of Ethics:

- a) Members shall constantly seek to provide better values, so that an even greater share of our people may enjoy the benefits of home ownership.
- b) Members shall strive to develop the efficiency of the home building industry to the end that labor may receive its just and proper reward.
- c) Members shall at all times contribute their knowledge in home building to the best interest of those they serve.
- d) Members shall not knowingly enter into any contract, the terms of which are designed to imperil the rights of either labor or the suppliers of materials to receive a fair return for services or goods purchased.
- e) Members shall not obtain any business by means of fraudulent statements or by use of implications unwarranted by fair or reasonable probability.
- f) Members shall comply both in spirit and letter with rules and regulations prescribed by law and government agencies for health, safety and progress of the community.
- g) Members shall be alert to examine proposed or enacted state and local legislation detrimental to social, economic and political progress.
- h) Members shall not perform, or cause to be performed, any act which would tend to reflect on, or bring into disrepute, any part of the home building industry.
