

Kevin Kirsch Installed as 2015 President of Home Builders Association of Greater Savannah

Kevin Kirsch of Kevin Kirsch New Homes was recently installed as President of the Home Builders Association of Greater Savannah (HBA). Kirsch was installed by his long time mentor, Rande Duke (1997 HBA President). The ceremony took place at The Savannah Marriott with over 160 guests, family and friends in attendance.

Originally from Mystic, Connecticut, Kirsch graduated from the University of New Haven, studying Architecture, along with being a four year starter for both the football and baseball teams. He started his building career in Atlanta, Georgia working for a high end framing company. In 1992, Kevin relocated to Savannah, Georgia and worked for a well known Architecture firm before being hired by a regionally known building company in 1993. In 2012, after 19 years working in the building Industry, Kevin and his wife Michelle made the decision to start their own company with the goal of out-performing every client's expectation and keeping a personal approach. A keen sense of business, knowledge of the building industry and extraordinary customer service is evident through the company's stellar reputation and steady growth in referrals and sales.

In addition to serving as the local HBA President, Kirsch currently serves as a Director for the Home Builders Association of Georgia and the National Association of Home Builders. He has served on the local HBA Board of Directors for the past 8 years and served on the Executive Board for the past 4 years. Kevin resides in Savannah with his wife, Michelle and their daughter, Kortney.

Other Officers installed at the annual event were Candler Wilson of Beacon Builder as Vice President; Joe Marshall of Atlantic Investors as Treasurer, Jeff Schofield of Green Choice Custom Homes as the Secretary, Janet Atwood of Footprint Realty as Associate Vice President and Brandy Jenkins of Footprint Realty as Chairman of the Sales & Marketing Council.

Board Members for the Greater Savannah HBA, Bryan County Chapter, and Sales & Marketing Council were also installed at the event.

Byron Loomis of Yates Astro was awarded the Woody Woodward Memorial Award, which recognizes outstanding contributions by an Associate member. Candler Wilson of Beacon Builders was recognized as the Sales & Marketing Council's member of the year and Presidential Awards were presented to Brett Bouy, Kevin Kirsch & Byron Loomis by outgoing President, Mark Bouy.

The HBA of Greater Savannah is a non profit Trade Association representing Chatham, Effingham, Bryan & Liberty Counties. For more information, please visit www.homebuildersofsavannah.com